FOREWORD

The latest Census took place in 2000. However, no Census data were available on the Navajo Nation until now. Trib Choudhary, an Economic Development Specialist with the Division, took the initiative to fill this gap. And the result is this booklet called the Navajo Nation Data from US Census 2000. It has covered a number of topics – Demography and Housing, Labor Force and Employment, Income and Poverty Level, Educational Attainment and so on. The booklet has compared the Navajo numbers with those of the nation and the states on numerous occasions. The booklet has also presented important data on all American Indian Tribes and Alaska Natives.

I hope that the booklet will be useful to you. Please forward your comments and suggestions to Trib Choudhary so that we can make further improvements to the booklet.

Sincerely,

Allan S. Begay
Executive Director
Division of Economic Development
